

Biography

Charles Alexander, BA (Hon) Oxon

In December 2016 Charles was invited by the Secretary of State to become the lead non-executive director at the Department for Culture, Media and Sport. Charles was appointed as the Chairman of the Royal Marsden NHS Trust and The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity in 2016. Charles was a Director and Deputy Chairman of English National Opera during a period which included the company's purchase and restoration of the London Coliseum and is currently the Chairman of Opera Rara, dedicated to the rediscovery and recreation of neglected masterpieces. Charles has extensive experience at board level across banking, industry and charitable sectors, including his role as Managing Director of international corporate and project finance at NM Rothschild, and President of GE Capital Europe.